NEW TO U.S. BANK

Send money to your friends and family with Zelle®.

It's fast, safe and easy.

Your life moves fast. Now your money can keep up.

In partnership with Zelle®, we've built a revolution in P2P (person-to-person) payments that's already available to more than 95 million people nationwide – and counting. Zelle makes it easy to transfer money to another person in the U.S. – and receive it, too – from your mobile device or computer. Best of all, Zelle is free for U.S. Bank customers.

It's fast

Money you send via Zelle can be in your recipient's account in minutes.Footnote 1

Legal notice

Federal Regulation D limits certain types of withdrawals and transfers made from a savings or money market account to a combined total of six per cycle. This includes withdrawals made by check or draft to third parties; debit or ATM card point-of-sale (POS) purchases; and preauthorized withdrawals such as automatic transfers for overdraft protection and transfers made by telephone, online banking, mobile banking, bill pay, wire and facsimile. Withdrawals and/or transfers exceeding the six per account cycle allowance will result in a $15 excessive withdrawal fee per transaction. If limitations are continuously exceeded, it may result in conversion to an Easy Checking account. Withdrawals and transfers made in person at a U.S. Bank branch or at an ATM are not included in the limit of six per account cycle.

About recurring payments

Recurring payments let you send payments at regular intervals to the same recipient.

Setting up payments

Choose how much to send, how often and for how long. For payments scheduled on weekends or federal holidays, money will be withdrawn from your account the next business day. You can cancel recurring payments at any time, or arrange to stop them after a certain number of payments or when a set dollar amount has been paid.

To cancel a payment

Send money, Manage payments, Recurring. Select the payment and choose Cancel.
